

PLNGNS.

Collection Notes

This collection is built on the idea that "new" no longer means "freshly sewn from a roll." New means a new perspective, new construction, new responsibility.

We treat errors as material: fabric defects, sneaker wear, traces of previous lives are not hidden but emphasized, becoming part of the composition.

Each look is a small system: how to connect sport and industry, past and future, individuality and scalability - without betraying either aesthetics or principles.

As we discussed earlier, this collection will fully introduce our second line, the Signature Line (simply branded as PLNGNS), while the main line remains fully handmade 1-of-1 pieces from the primarily artistic Iconic Line (branded as Palingenesy).
